

JAMAICA

No. 21– 2002

I assent,

(L.S.)

H. F. COOKE,

Governor-General.

22nd day of July, 2002.

AN ACT to Provide members of the public with a general right of access to official documents and for connected matters.

[ The date notified by the Minister bringing the Act into operation ]

BE IT ENACTED by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Jamaica, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Access to Information Act, 2002, and shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Minister by notice published in the Gazette.

PART I. Preliminary

2. The objects of this Act are to reinforce and give further effect to certain fundamental principles underlying the system of constitutional democracy, namely—

Objects of Act.

- (a) governmental accountability;
- (b) transparency; and
- (c) public participation in national decision-making,

by granting to the public a general right of access to official documents held by public authorities, subject to exemptions which balance that right against the public interest in exempting from disclosure governmental, commercial or personal information of a sensitive nature.

3. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation.

"appointed day" means the day appointed pursuant to section 1;

"document" includes, in addition to a document in writing—

- (a) any map, plan, graph or drawing;

- (b) any photograph;
- (c) any disc, tape, sound track or other device in which sounds or other data (not being visual images) are embodied, whether electronically or otherwise, so as to be capable (with or without the aid of some other equipment) of being reproduced therefrom;
- (d) any film (including microfilm), negative, tape or other device in which one or more visual images are embodied whether electronically or otherwise, so as to be capable (with or without the aid of some other equipment) of being reproduced therefrom;

"exempt document" means a document which by virtue of any provision of Part III is exempt from disclosure;

"exempt matter" means any matter the inclusion of which in a document causes that part of the document to be exempt from disclosure;

"government company" means a company registered under the Companies Act, being a company in which the Government or an agency of the Government, whether by the holding of shares or by other financial input, is in a position to influence the policy of the company;

"official document" means a document held by a public authority in connection with its functions as such, whether or not it was created—

- (a) by that authority; or
- (b) before the commencement of this Act, and for the purposes of this Act, a document is held by a public authority if it is in its possession, custody or control;

"public authority" means—

- (a) a Ministry, department, Executive Agency or other agency of Government;
- (b) a statutory body or authority;
- (c) a Parish Council;
- (d) the Council of the Kingston and St. Andrew Corporation;
- (e) any government company which—
  - (i) is wholly owned by the Government or an agency of the Government, or in which the Government holds more than 50% shares; or
  - (ii) is specified in an order under section 5 (3);
- (f) any other body or organization specified in an order under section 5 (3);

"responsible Minister" means the Minister responsible for the public authority which holds an official document.

4.—(1) A public authority shall cause to be published within twelve months of—

- (a) the appointed day;
- (b) its establishment; or
- (c) the coming into operation of an order under section 5 (3) which specified that authority,

Publication of information by public authority.

whichever is later, an initial statement of its organization and functions containing the information specified in the First Schedule.

(2) The provisions of the First Schedule shall apply for the purposes of making available to the public the documents described in that Schedule.

First Schedule.

(3) The information required under subsection (1) shall be published in such manner and shall be updated with such frequency as may be prescribed.

(4) The Minister may amend the First Schedule by order subject to affirmative resolution.

Application of Act.

5.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act applies to—

- (a) all public authorities;
- (b) official documents created by or held by a public authority not earlier than thirty years immediately preceding the appointed day.

(2) The Minister may, by order subject to negative resolution, declare that this Act shall apply to official documents created by or held by a public authority at such date, being earlier than the thirty years referred to in subsection (1) (b), as may be specified in that order.

(3) The Minister may, by order subject to affirmative resolution, declare that this Act shall apply to—

- (a) such government companies, other than those specified in paragraph (e) (i) of the definition of "public authority", as may be specified in the order;
- (b) any other body or organization which provides services of a public nature which are essential to the welfare of the Jamaican society, or to such aspects of their operations as may be specified in the order.

(4) An order under subsection (3) may be made subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications, as the Minister may consider appropriate.

(5) The Minister may, by order subject to affirmative resolution, declare that the application of this Act in relation to any government company specified in paragraph (e) (i) of the definition of "public authority" shall be subject to such exceptions, adaptations or modifications as the Minister may consider appropriate.

(6) This Act shall not apply to—

- (a) the Governor-General, in relation to the exercise of the powers and duties conferred or imposed on him by or under the Constitution of Jamaica or under any other law;

- (b) the judicial functions of—
  - (i) a court;
  - (ii) the holder of a judicial office or other office connected with a court;
- (c) the security or intelligence services in relation to their strategic or operational intelligence gathering activities;
- (d) any statutory body or authority as the Minister may specify by order subject to affirmative resolution.

(7) This Act applies to official documents held in a registry or other office of a court, being documents that relate only to matters of an administrative nature.

(8) In subsection (6) "security or intelligence services" means—

- (a) the Jamaica Constabulary Force;
- (b) the Island Special Constabulary Force;
- (c) the Rural Police;
- (d) the Jamaica Defence Force.

PART II. Right of Access

6.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, every person shall have a right to obtain access to an official document, other than an exempt document.

Right
of access.

(2) The exemption of an official document or part thereof from disclosure shall not apply after the document has been in existence for twenty years, or such shorter or longer period as the Minister may specify by order, subject to affirmative resolution.

(3) An applicant for access to an official document shall not be required to give any reason for requesting access to that document.

(4) Where an official document is—

- (a) open to access by the public pursuant to any other enactment, as part of a public register or otherwise; or
- (b) available for purchase by the public in accordance with administrative procedures established for that purpose, access to that document shall be obtained in accordance with the provisions of that enactment or those procedures, as the case may be.

7.—(1) A person who wishes to obtain access to an official document shall make an application to the public authority which holds that document.

Application for access.

(2) An application under subsection (1)—

- (a) may be made in writing or transmitted by telephone or other electronic means;
- (b) shall provide such information concerning the document as is reasonably necessary to enable the public authority to identify it.

(3) A public authority to which an application is made shall—

- (a) upon request, assist the applicant in identifying the documents to which the application relates;
- (b) acknowledge receipt of every application in the prescribed manner;
- (c) grant to the applicant, access to the document specified in the application if it is not an exempt document.

(4) A public authority shall respond to an application as soon as practicable but not later than—

- (a) thirty days after the date of receipt of the application; or
- (b) in the case of an application transferred to it by another authority pursuant to section 8, thirty days after the date of the receipt by that authority, so, however, that an authority may extend the period of thirty days for a further period, not exceeding thirty days, in any case where there is reasonable cause for such extension.

(5) The response of the public authority shall state its decision on the application, and where the authority or body decides to refuse or defer access or to extend the period of thirty days, it shall state the reasons therefor, and the options available to an aggrieved applicant.

8.—(1) Where an application is made to a public authority for an official document—

- (a) which is held by another public authority; or
- (b) the subject matter of which is more closely connected with the functions of another public authority,

Transfer of requests.

the first mentioned public authority shall transfer the application or such part of it as may be appropriate to that other public authority and shall inform the applicant immediately of the transfer.

(2) A transfer of an application pursuant to subsection (1) shall be made as soon as practicable but not later than fourteen days after the date of receipt of the application.

9.—(1) Access to an official document may be granted to an applicant in one or more of the following forms—

- (a) the applicant may be afforded a reasonable opportunity to inspect the document;
- (b) the authority concerned may furnish the applicant with a copy of the document;
- (c) in the case of a document from which sounds or visual images are capable of being reproduced, arrangements may be made for the applicant to hear the sounds or view the visual images;

Forms of access.

- (d) in the case of a document by which or in which words are—
  - (i) recorded in a manner in which they are capable of being reproduced in the form of sound and images; or
  - (ii) contained in the form of shorthand writing or in codified form, the applicant may be furnished with a transcript of the data or the words, sounds and images recorded or contained in that document.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where an applicant requests that access be given in a particular form, access shall be given in that form.

(3) A public authority may grant access in a form other than that requested by an applicant where the grant of access in the form requested would—

- (a) be detrimental to the preservation of the document, or be inappropriate, having regard to its physical state;
- (b) constitute an infringement of copyright subsisting in any matter contained in the document.

(4) Copies of documents to which access is granted shall be authenticated in the prescribed manner.

10.—(1) Where the information provided by the applicant in relation to the document is not such as is reasonably necessary to enable the public authority to identify it, the authority shall afford the applicant a reasonable opportunity to consult with the authority with a view to reformulating the application so that the document can be identified.

Assistance and deferment
of access

(2) A public authority may defer the grant of access to an official document—

- (a) if publication of the document within a particular period is required under the provisions of any enactment, until the expiration of that period;
- (b) if the document was prepared for presentation to Parliament or for the purpose of being made available to a particular person or body, until the expiration of a reasonable period after its preparation for it to be so presented or made available to the person or body;
- (c) if the premature release of the document would be contrary to the public interest, until the occurrence of any event after which or the expiration of any period beyond which, the release of the document would not be contrary to the public interest.

(3) Where a public authority decides to defer access in accordance with subsection (2), it shall, within fourteen days of its decision, inform the applicant of that decision and shall, where possible, indicate to him the period during which the deferment will operate.

11.—(1) Where an application is made to a public authority for access to an official document which contains exempt matter, the authority shall grant access to a copy of the document with the exempt matter deleted therefrom.

Deletion of exempt matter

(2) A public authority which grants access to a copy of an official document in accordance with this section shall inform the applicant—

- (a) that it is such a copy; and
- (b) of the statutory provision by virtue of which such deleted matter is exempt matter.

Fees, etc

12.—(1) The cost of reproducing any documents containing information in relation to which an application is made under this Act shall be borne by the applicant.

(2) The responsible Minister may waive, reduce or remit, the cost specified in subsection (1) for access to an official document where he is satisfied that such waiver, reduction or remission is justifiable.

13. Subject to this Act, where—

- (a) an application is made in accordance with section 7 for access to an official document; and
  - (b) the cost incurred by the public authority in granting access has been paid,
- access to the document shall be granted in accordance with this Act.

Grant of access.

PART III. Exempt Documents

14. Official documents are exempt from disclosure if—

- (a) the disclosure thereof would prejudice the security, defence or international relations of Jamaica;
- (b) those documents contain information communicated in confidence to the Government by or on behalf of a foreign government or by an international organization.

Documents affecting security, defence or international relations

15.—(1) An official document is exempt from disclosure if it is a Cabinet document, that is to say—

- (a) it is a Cabinet Submission, Cabinet Note or other document created for the purpose of submission to the Cabinet for its consideration and it has been or is intended to be submitted;
- (b) it is a Cabinet Decision, or other official record of any deliberation of the Cabinet.

Cabinet documents

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply, to—

- (a) any document appended to a Cabinet document that contains material of a purely factual nature or reports, studies, tests or surveys of a scientific or technical nature; or
- (b) a document by which a decision of the Cabinet has been officially published.

16. Official documents relating to law enforcement are exempt from disclosure if their disclosure would, or could reasonably be expected to—

Documents relating to law enforcement

- (a) endanger any person's life or safety;

- (b) prejudice—
  - (i) the conduct of an investigation of a breach or possible breach of the law; or
  - (ii) the fair trial of any person or the impartial adjudication of a particular case;
- (c) disclose, or enable a person to ascertain, the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to law enforcement;
- (d) reveal lawful methods or procedures for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with matters arising out of breaches or evasions of the law, where such revelation would, or could be reasonably likely to, prejudice the effectiveness of those methods or procedures;
- (e) facilitate the escape of a person from lawful detention; or
- (f) jeopardize the security of any correctional facilities.

17. An official document is exempt from disclosure if—

- a) it would be privileged from production in legal proceedings on the ground of legal (professional) privilege; or
- (b) the disclosure thereof would—
  - (i) constitute an actionable breach of confidence;
  - (ii) be in contempt of court; or
  - (iii) infringe the privileges of Parliament.

Documents subject to legal privilege, etc.

18.—(1) An official document of a type specified in subsection (2) is exempt from disclosure if its disclosure or, as the case may be, its premature disclosure would, or could reasonably be expected to, have a substantial adverse effect on the Jamaican economy, or the Government's ability to manage the Jamaican economy.

Documents affecting national economy.

(2) The types of documents referred to in subsection (1) include but are not limited to, documents relating to taxes, duties or rates, interest rates, monetary policy and exchange rate policy or currency or exchange rates.

19.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), an official document is exempt from disclosure if it contains—

- (a) opinions, advice or recommendations prepared for;
- (b) a record of consultations or deliberations arising in the course of, proceedings of the Cabinet or of a committee thereof.

Documents revealing Government's deliberative processes.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to documents which contain material of a purely factual nature or reports, studies, tests or surveys of a scientific or technical nature.

(3) A public authority shall grant access to a document referred to in subsection (1) if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances, that the disclosure thereof would, on balance, be in the public interest.

20.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), an official document is exempt from disclosure if—

Documents relating to business affairs, etc.

- (a) its disclosure would reveal—
  - (i) trade secrets;
  - (ii) any other information of a commercial value, which value would be, or could reasonably be expected to be, destroyed or diminished if the information were disclosed;
- (b) it contains information (other than that referred to in paragraph (a)) concerning the commercial interests of any person or organization (including a public authority) and the disclosure of that information would prejudice those interests.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where the applicant for access is the person or organization referred to in that subsection or a person acting on behalf of that person or organization.

21.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), an official document is exempt from disclosure if its disclosure would, or could reasonably be expected to result in the destruction of, damage to, or interference with, the conservation of—

Documents relating to heritage sites etc.

- (a) any historical, archaeological or anthropological resources;
- (b) anything declared to be a national monument, designated as protected national heritage or protected by a preservation notice under the Jamaica National Heritage Trust Act;
- (c) any species of plant or animal life so designated or which is endangered, threatened or otherwise vulnerable;
- (d) any other rare or endangered living resource.

(2) A public authority shall grant access to a document referred to in subsection (1) if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances, that the disclosure thereof would, on balance, be in the public interest.

22.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a public authority shall not grant access to an official document if it would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information relating to the personal affairs of any person, whether living or dead.

Documents affecting personal Privacy.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in any case where the application for access is made by the person to whose affairs the document relates.

23.—(1) Where—

- (a) the Prime Minister is satisfied that an application for access relates to a document specified in section 15 (1);
- (b) a responsible Minister is satisfied that an application for access relates to an official document to which section 14, 16 or 18, as the case may be, applies,

Issue of certificate re exempt documents.

the Prime Minister or the responsible Minister, as the case may require, may issue a certificate to the effect that the document is an exempt document and shall specify the basis of the exemption.

(2) Where the Prime Minister or a responsible Minister, as the case may be, is satisfied as mentioned in subsection (1) by virtue of anything contained in any particular part or parts of an official document, a certificate issued under that subsection in respect of that document shall identify that part or those parts of the document by reason of which the certificate is issued.

(3) A certificate issued under subsection (1) shall be conclusive that the document is exempt.

PART IV. Amendment and Annotation of Personal Records

24.—(1) Where a person claims that an official document contains personal information about the person that—

- (a) is incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading; and
- (b) has been used, is being used or is available for use by a public authority for administrative purposes,

Application for amendment or annotation of personal records.

the person may apply to the public authority for an amendment or an annotation, as the case may be, of that document.

(2) An application under this section shall be in writing and shall specify as far as practicable, the document claimed to be the personal record requiring amendment or annotation, as the case may be, and shall—

- (a) in the case of an application for amendment, specify—
  - (i) whether information in the record is claimed to be incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading and the information in respect of which that claim is made;
  - (ii) the applicant's basis for making that claim; and
  - (iii) the nature of the amendment required by the applicant;
- (b) in the case of an application for annotation, be accompanied by a statement specifying—
  - (i) the matters referred to in paragraph (a) (i) and (ii); and
  - (ii) the information that would make the record complete, correct, up to date and not misleading.

25.—(1) Where, in relation to any application under section 24, a public authority is satisfied as to the truth of the matters stated in the application, it shall amend the document concerned in the prescribed manner.

Amendment of records

(2) Where a public authority decides not to amend an official document it shall—

- (a) take such steps as are reasonable to enable the applicant to provide a statement of the kind referred to in section 24 (2) (b); and
- (b) annotate the document by adding thereto the statement referred to in paragraph (a).

26. Where, in relation to an application for annotation of an official document containing personal information, the public authority—

Annotation
personal records

- (a) is satisfied as to the truth of the matters specified in that application, the authority shall annotate the document in the prescribed manner;
- (b) is not so satisfied, it may refuse to annotate the document.

27. A public authority which amends or annotates an official document pursuant to section 25 or 26, or, as the case may be, decides not to do so, shall take reasonable steps to inform—

Notice of amendments or annotations.

- (a) the applicant; and
- (b) any other public authority which it is satisfied has made prior use of the document, of the nature of the amendment or annotation or, as the case may require, of the decision and the reasons for that decision.

28. The provisions of section 8 shall apply, with such modifications as may be necessary, to applications for amendments or annotations of personal records.

Transfer of Applications for amendment or annotation.

PART V. Review and Appeal

29. In this Part and Part VI “relevant decision” means a decision referred to in section 30 (1) or (2), as the case may require.

Interpretation.

30.—(1) An applicant for access to an official document may, in accordance with subsection (4), apply for an internal review of a decision by a public authority to—review.

Internal

- (a) refuse to grant access to the document;
- (b) grant access only to some of the documents specified in an application;
- (c) defer the grant of access to the document;
- (d) charge a fee for action taken or as to the amount of the fee.

(2) An applicant for amendment or annotation of a personal record may, in accordance with subsection (4), apply for a review of a decision by a public authority to refuse to make that amendment or annotation.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), a failure to give a decision on any of the matters referred to in subsection (1) (a) to (c) or to amend or annotate a personal record within the time required by this Act shall be regarded as a refusal to do so.

(4) An application under subsection (1) or (2) may only be made where the decision to which the application relates was taken by a person other than the responsible Minister, a Permanent Secretary or the principal officer of the public authority concerned.

31.—(1) An internal review shall be conducted—

Procedure re
internal
review.

- (a) by the responsible Minister in relation to documents referred to in sections 14, 15, 16 and 18;

- (b) in any other case, by the Permanent Secretary in the relevant Ministry or the principal officer of the public authority whose decision is subject to review.

(2) An application for internal review shall be made—

- (a) within thirty days after the date of a notification (in this subsection referred to as the initial period) to the applicant of the relevant decision, or within such further period, not exceeding thirty days, as the public authority may permit; or
- (b) where no such notification has been given, within thirty days after the expiration of the period allowed for the giving of the decision or of any other period permitted by the authority.

(3) A person who conducts an internal review—

- (a) may take any decision in relation to the application which could have been taken on an original application;
- (b) shall take that decision within a period of thirty days after the date of receipt of the application.

32.—(1) An appeal shall lie pursuant to subsections (2) and (3), to the tribunal established for that purpose, constituted in accordance with the Second Schedule.

Appeal.

(2) A person may lodge an appeal—

Second Schedule.

- (a) where internal review under section 30 is applicable—
  - (i) against a decision taken on such review;
  - (ii) if the time specified in section 31 (2) (b) has expired without the applicant being notified of a decision;
- (b) in any other case, against a relevant decision in relation to any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) of section 30 (1) or section 30 (2), and accordingly section 30 (3) shall apply with necessary modifications to an appeal under this paragraph.

(3) An appeal shall be made—

- (a) by the lodgement of a document within sixty days after the date of the notification to the appellant of the relevant decision or of the decision taken on an internal review; or
- (b) where no notification has been given within the period required by this Act, within sixty days after the expiration of that period.

(4) Where an appeal is not made within the period specified in subsection (2), the Appeal Tribunal may extend that period if it is satisfied that the appellant's delay in so doing is not unreasonable.

(5) On the hearing of an appeal, the onus of proving that the relevant decision was justified or that a decision adverse to the appellant should be made by the Appeal Tribunal, shall lie on the public authority which made the relevant decision.

(6) On hearing an appeal, the Appeal Tribunal—

- (a) may subject to paragraph (b), make any decision which could have been made on the original application;
- (b) shall not nullify a certificate issued under section 23.

(7) The Appeal Tribunal may call for and inspect an exempt document, so however that, where it does so, it shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the document is inspected only by members of staff of the Appeal Tribunal acting in that capacity.

PART VI. Miscellaneous

33.—(1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing the disclosure of any official document—

Protection from liability re defamation breach of confidence or copyright.

- (a) containing any defamatory matter; or
- (b) the disclosure of which would be in breach of confidence or of copyright.

(2) Where access to a document referred to in subsection (1) is granted in the bona fide belief that the grant of such access is required by this Act, no action for defamation, breach of confidence or breach of copyright shall lie against—

- (a) the Government or any public authority, any Minister or any public officer involved in the grant of such access, by reason of the grant of access or of any republication of that document; or
- (b) the author of the document or any other person who supplied the document to the Government or the public authority, in respect of the publication involved in or resulting from the grant of access, by reason of having so supplied the document.

(3) The grant of access to an official document in accordance with this Act shall not be construed as authorization or approval—

- (a) for the purpose of the law relating to defamation or breach of confidence, of the publication of the document or its contents by the person to whom access is granted;
- (b) for the purposes of the Copyright Act, of the doing by that person of any act comprised within the copyright in any work contained in the document, as follows—
  - (i) any literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work; statements bringing up to date information contained in the previous statement or statements.

3. The principal officer is not required to comply fully with paragraph 2 (a) before the expiration of 12 months after the appointed day, but shall, before that time, comply with that paragraph so far as is practicable.

4. This Schedule does not require a document of the kind specified in paragraph 1 (e) containing exempt matter, to be made available in accordance with paragraph 2, but, if such a document is not so made available, the principal officer shall, unless impracticable or unreasonable to do so, cause to be prepared a corresponding document, altered only to the extent necessary to exclude the exempt matter, and cause the document so prepared to be dealt with in accordance with paragraph 2.

5. Paragraphs 2 and 3 apply in relation to a public authority that either comes into existence after the commencement of this Act, or has been specified by order under section 5 of the Act as if the references in paragraph 3 to the appointed day were references to the day on which the authority comes into existence or has been so specified, as the case may be.
